

OAKLAND COUNTY CLERK/REGISTER BRINGS SERVICES TO HIGHLAND TOWNSHIP AND SURROUNDING AREAS WITH JUNE 2 LOCAL OFFICE VISIT

Oakland County Clerk/Registrar of Deeds Lisa Brown is bringing the services of her office to Highland Township and surrounding areas. The upcoming Clerk Local Office Visit (LOV) will be held Tuesday, June 2, from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the Highland Township Public Library, located at 444 Beach Farm Road. Most transactions that people conduct with the County Clerk/Registrar of Deeds Office will be available.

"Clerk Local Office Visits are a convenient way for county residents to get the services they need from my office in their hometown," said Brown. "Whether you visit our main office in Pontiac, our satellite office in Troy, a Clerk LOV near you, or access our online services, my goal is to ensure accessibility to my office's services for all county residents."

At all Local Office Visits residents can:

- Apply for a Concealed Pistol License (CPL)
- Apply for a marriage license
- Apply to become a Notary Public
- File a military discharge record
- Get a free Veterans ID card
- Register or renew a business name
- Obtain copies of:
  - Birth, death and marriage certificates
  - Oakland County Circuit Court documents
  - Property documents (mortgages, deeds, liens, etc.)
